

We bring together companies and their investors through a secure and easy to use platform

Whether you're a private or institutional investor, trawling through fragmented information on websites and social media can be a significant burden. Our platform was designed to make it easier to find the people and data you need - while giving you control over who you follow, engage with and read about.

Senasen is intuitive and easy to use on any device. The uniform format of company information makes it easy to find and access the information you need, whenever and wherever you need it.

- Create a profile and set preferences based on your interests
- Access documents and videos from companies of all sizes and stages of maturity
- Contact senior executives and IR teams directly using private message functions
- Take part in live Q&A sessions
- Receive news from companies you're interested in
- Build your investor brand or remain under-the-radar

There are no joining or subscription fees for investors – and it takes less than seven minutes to set up your account.

Our vision:

We are determined to create a single platform that supports companies, asset managers and investors; to become the leading portal for information sharing and early-stage interaction between all parties.

We are an independent business that does not sell advertising space or data – our only source of revenue is through subscriptions. As such, we have been able to create a professional environment that avoids the pitfalls of social media whilst also harnessing the strength of a global network.

Features and benefits:

Access information provided directly from private and public companies, asset managers and investors

- Quickly find what you need through an easy to use and consistent display
- Watch corporate and product videos; read documents, comments and news feeds
- Find and follow only those companies and funds that match your criteria
- No need to trawl through individual websites and social media accounts

Gain insight and interact directly with investment opportunities

- Watch and listen to leadership figures from the companies and funds that interest you
- Gain a fuller understanding of the companies you follow and the value propositions that underlie their products and services
- Cross reference information and opinions provided by interrelated groups, sectors and professionals
- Interact privately and publicly through messaging functionality

Promote your personal brand and expand your network

- Build connections with companies, asset managers and other investors
- Comment on what you watch and read – and share via social media
- Or, if you so wish, stay completely hidden

No cost

- No paid-for upgrades and no advertising

visit senasen.com to set up your free account